

*A Book of Record.
Franklin Library.
February 20th 1794*

A second document, "A Book of Record, Franklin Library February 20th, 1794" includes a record of the loan of books, their condition, fines assessed and other information Dr. Emmons felt it necessary to note. It also lists the subscribers for 1793 and includes a notice requesting that the library's treasurer collect the annual "library taxes" (dues), six pence. Two members were also charged an additional eight pence each "for not returning a Book."
