THE GRAVESTONE GIRLS

at the Franklin Public Library

Thursday, November 17, 6:30 p.m.

Join us for a fascinating presentation by the Gravestone Girls about New England cemetery art, history and symbolism. The 'virtual tour', called "Welcome to The Graveyard", takes us from colonial burial grounds, through the rural cemetery movement of the 19th century and into 21st century locations. It examines why we have cemeteries and gravestones, why they look like they do and how styles and art have evolved over almost 400 years. Prior to the program date, The Girls will hit the road and go through Franklin's cemeteries, taking pictures to discuss during the presentation. Q&A is welcome at the end of the show! Our Gravestone Girl Brenda Sullivan is always the presenter of our programs, and if schedules allow, other Gravestone Girls will join us too! This program is free and open to the public. For more information, please visit The Gravestone Girls website at <http://gravestonegirls.com/>.

PASTEL PAINT STUNNING STILL LIFES LIKE THE MASTERS

At the Franklin Public Library

Thursday, November 10, 6:00-8:00 p.m.

Gregory Maichack, twice nominated for the MCC Gold Star Award, and award-winning pastelist, presents his all-new “Pastel Paint Stunning Still Lifes Like the Masters” workshop: instruction, demo, and hands-on work by sheer beginners to advanced who keep their pastel painting. He demonstrates how beginners to accomplished artists can easily pastel paint a still life while applying techniques applied by masters such as van Gogh, O’Keeffe, Monet & da Vinci. He shares humorous and insightful anecdotes on the artists in this fun workshop. Essential techniques of pastel painting will be clearly demonstrated as participants follow along. He provides hundreds of professional grade pastels, paper, & pencils. For more information, please visit Greg’s website <http://gregorymaichack.com/> . This program is free and open to the public.
