BENEFICIAL INTEREST CONTACT - Individual (Formerly known as a Personal Information Form)

Please complete a Beneficial Interest - Individual sheet for all individual(s) who have a direct or indirect beneficial interest, with or without ownership, in this license. This includes people with a financial interest and people without financial interest (i.e. board of directors for not-for-profit clubs). All individuals with direct or indirect financial interest must also submit a CORI Authorization Form.

An individual with direct beneficial interest is defined as someone who has interest directly in the proposed licensee. For example, if ABC Inc is the proposed licensee, all individuals with interest in ABC Inc are considered to have direct beneficial interest in ABC Inc (the proposed licensee).

An individual with indirect beneficial interest is defined as someone who has ownership in a parent level company of the proposed licensee. For example, if ABC Inc is the proposed licensee and is 100% owned by XYZ Inc, all individuals with interest in XYZ Inc are considered to have an indirect beneficial interest in ABC Inc (the proposed licensee).

CONTINUATION SHEET 2A

To maintain markets for the purchase, sale and delivery of meats, poultry, game, fish, and all kinds of food supplies.

To carry on a meat, provision, grocery and general mercantile business, and particularly to purchase, sell and generally deal in groceries, game, fish, poultry, meats, provisions and general merchandise, and to carry on the above business and do the above things, both at wholesale and at retail, as owners, commission merchants, factors, agents, brokers, dealers and in every other capacity whatsoever; to lease, purchase, acquire, hold, erect, equip, operate and maintain buildings, stores, cold storage and other warehouses and such other real and personal property as the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts permit and as the Corporation may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, to purchase, acquire, sell or otherwise dispose of good will, rights, property and assets of all kinds, and generally to carry on any other business which may seem to the Corporation capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the above purposes or calculated directly or indirectly to enhance the value of, or render profitable any of the Corporation's business, property, or rights so far as the same shall be permitted by the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

To acquire by purchase and subscription, or otherwise, to hold for investment or otherwise, to use and to sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise dispose of, any stock, bonds, or other securities or evidences of indebtedness of any corporation, whether of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, or of any other state, territory, or country, and while owner thereof to exercise all the rights, powers and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote upon any stock so acquired; to aid in any manner any corporation whose stock, bonds or other obligations are held or in any manner guaranteed by the Corporation, and to do any other acts or things for the preservation, protection, improvement, or enhancement of the value of any such stock, bonds, or other obligations, or to do any other acts or things designed for such purpose.

To be a partner in any partnership and to do any and all things and to exercise any and all powers which a partner or a partnership or a natural person could do and exercise as principal, agent, partner, contractor or otherwise in furtherance of these purposes, as now or hereafter may be authorized by the laws governing business corporations.

CONTINUATION SHEET 6A

1. The board of directors is authorized and empowered from time to time, in its discretion, to make, amend or repeal the by-laws, in part or in whole, except with respect to any provision thereof which by law or the by-laws requires action by the stockholders.

2. The board of directors shall have full power and authority to determine the terms and manner of issue, including, but not limited to, the consideration therefor, and to issue or cause the issue of all shares of capital stock of the Corporation now or from time to time hereafter authorized.

3. Meetings of stockholders may be held outside the Commonwealth of Massachusetts at such location within the United States as the board of directors may determine. The books of the Corporation may be kept (subject to any provision contained in the statutes) at such place or places within the Commonwealth of Massachusetts as may be designated from time to time by the board of directors or in the by-laws of the Corporation. Election of directors need not be by ballot unless so requested by any stockholder entitled to vote thereon.

4. Each director and each officer elected by the stockholders (including persons elected by directors to fill vacancies in the Board of Directors or in any such offices), and each former director or officer, and the heirs, executors, administrators and assigns of each of them, shall be indemnified by the Corporation against all costs and expenses, including fees and disbursements of counsel and the cost of settlements (other than amounts paid to the Corporation itself) reasonably incurred by or imposed upon him in connection with or arising out of any action, suit or proceeding, civil or criminal, in which he may be involved by reason of his being or having been an officer or a director of the Corporation, or by reason of his serving or having served at its request with respect to any employee benefit plan, or by reason of any action alleged to have been taken or omitted by him as a director or an officer of the Corporation, or by reason of his serving or having served at its request with respect to any employee benefit plan.

Officers elected by the directors but who are not directors, or persons serving at its request with respect to any employee benefit plan, and employees and other agents of the Corporation (including persons who serve at its request as directors or officers of another organization) and each such former officer, person serving with respect to any employee benefit plan, employee and agent, and the heirs, executors, administrators and assigns of each of them, may be indemnified by the Corporation to whatever extent authorized by the Board of Directors.

No indemnification shall be provided to any person, or to his heirs, executor, administrator or assigns, with respect to any matter as to which he shall have been finally adjudicated in any action, suit or proceeding not to have acted in good faith in the reasonable belief that his action was in the best interests of the Corporation or, to the extent that such matter relates to service with respect to an employee benefit plan, in the best interests of the participants or beneficiaries of such employee benefit plan.

The Corporation may pay the expenses incurred by a director, officer, employee or person serving with respect to an employee benefit plan in defending any such action, suit or proceeding in advance of the final disposition thereof, upon receipt of an undertaking by the person indemnified to repay such payment if he shall be adjudicated to be not entitled to indemnification as provided in this Article 6, which undertaking may be accepted without reference to the financial ability of such person to make repayment.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, no director or officer of the Corporation shall be liable to any person on account of any action undertaken by him as such director or officer in reliance in good faith upon information, opinions, reports or records, including financial statements, books of account and other financial records, in each case presented by or prepared by or under the supervision of (1) one or more officers or employees of the Corporation whom the director or officer reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented, or (2) counsel, public accountants or other persons as to matters which the director or officer reasonably believes to be within such person's professional or expert competence, or (3) in the case of a director, a duly constituted committee of the board of directors upon which he does not serve, as to matters within its delegated authority, which committee the director reasonably believes to merit confidence.

The foregoing indemnification shall not be exclusive of any other rights or indemnification for which any such director, officer, employee or agent may be entitled.

The board of directors may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, trustee, employee or other agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation with respect to any employee benefit plan or as a director, officer, trustee, employee or other agent of another corporation of which the Corporation is or was a stockholder or creditor, against any liability incurred by him in any such capacity or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability.

5. The directors shall have the power to fix from time to time their compensation. No person shall be disqualified from holding any office by reason of any interest. In the absence of fraud, any director, officer or stockholder of the Corporation individually or any individual having any interest in any concern which is a stockholder of the Corporation, or any concern in which any of such directors, officers, stockholders or individuals has any interest, may be a party to, or may be pecuniarily or otherwise interested in, any contract, transaction or other act of the Corporation, and

- (1) such contract, transaction or act shall not be in any way invalidated or otherwise affected by that fact;
- (2) no such director, officer, stockholder or individual shall be liable to account to the Corporation for any profit or benefit realized through any such contract, transaction or act; and
- (3) any such director of the Corporation may be counted in determining the existence of a quorum at any meeting of the directors or of any committee thereof which shall authorize any such contract, transaction or act, and may vote to authorize the same;

provided, however, that any contract, transaction or act in which any director or officer of the Corporation is so interested individually or as a director, officer, trustee or member of any concern which is not a subsidiary or affiliate of the Corporation, or in which any directors or officers are so interested as holders, collectively, of a majority of shares of capital stock or other beneficial interest at the time outstanding in any concern which is not a subsidiary or affiliate of the Corporation, shall be duly authorized or ratified by a majority of the directors who are not so interested, to whom the nature of such interest has been disclosed and who have made any findings required by law;

the term "interest" including personal interest and interest as a director, officer, stockholder, shareholder, trustee, member or beneficiary of any concern;

the term "concern" meaning any corporation, association, trust, partnership, firm, person or other entity other than the Corporation; and the phrase "subsidiary or affiliate" meaning a concern in which a majority of the directors, trustees, partners or controlling persons is elected or appointed by the directors of the Corporation, or is constituted of the directors or officers of the Corporation.

To the extent permitted by law, the authorizing or ratifying vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of each class of the capital stock of the Corporation outstanding and entitled to vote for directors at any annual meeting or a special meeting duly called for the purpose (whether such vote is passed before or after judgment rendered in a suit with respect to such contract, transaction or act) shall validate any contract, transaction or act of the Corporation, or of the board of directors or any committee thereof, with regard to all stockholders of the Corporation, whether or not of record at the time of such vote, and with regard to all creditors and other claimants under the Corporation; provided, however, that

- A. with respect to the authorization or ratification of contracts, transactions or acts in which any of the directors, officers or stockholders of the Corporation have an interest, the nature of such contracts, transactions or acts and the interest of any director, officer or stockholder therein shall be summarized in the notice of any such annual or special meeting, or in a statement or letter accompanying such notice, and shall be fully disclosed at any such meeting;
- B. the stockholders so voting shall have made any findings required by law;
- C. stockholders so interested may vote at any such meeting except to the extent otherwise provided by law; and
- D. any failure of the stockholders to authorize or ratify such contract, transaction or act shall not be deemed in any way to invalidate the same or to deprive the Corporation, its directors, officers or employees of its or their right to proceed with such contract, transaction or act.

No contract, transaction or act shall be voided by reason of any provision of this paragraph 5 which would be valid but for such provision or provisions.

6. In furtherance, and not in limitation, of the purposes enumerated in Article 2 hereof, the Corporation shall have all the powers conferred by the laws of The Commonwealth of Massachusetts, provided that no such power shall be exercised in a manner inconsistent with the Business Corporation Law or any other applicable provision of Massachusetts law.

7. Except as may be otherwise provided herein, the Corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in these articles of organization in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by statute, and all rights conferred upon stockholders herein are granted subject to this reservation.

8. No stockholder shall have any right to examine any property or any books, accounts or other writings of the Corporation if there is reasonable ground for belief that such examination will for any reason be adverse to the interests of the Corporation, and a vote of the directors refusing permission to make such examination and setting forth that in the opinion of the directors such examination would be adverse to the interests of the Corporation shall be prima facie evidence that such examination would be adverse to the interests of the Corporation. Every such examination shall be subject to such reasonable regulations as the directors may establish in regard thereto.

9. The directors may specify the manner in which the accounts of the Corporation shall be kept and may determine what constitutes net earnings, profits and surplus, what amounts, if any, shall be reserved for any corporate purpose, and what amounts, if any, shall be declared as dividends. Unless the board of directors otherwise specifies, the excess of the consideration for any share of its capital stock with par value issued by it over such par value shall be paid-in surplus. The board of directors may allocate to capital stock less than all of the consideration for any share of its capital stock without par value issued by it, in which case the balance of such consideration shall be paid-in surplus. All surplus shall be available for any corporate purpose, including the payment of dividends.

10. The purchase or other acquisition or retention by the Corporation of shares of its own capital stock shall not be deemed a reduction of its capital stock. Upon any reduction of capital or capital stock, no stockholder shall have any right to demand any distribution from the Corporation, except as and to the extent that the stockholders shall have provided at the time of authorizing such reduction.

11. The Corporation may carry on business operations or activities through a wholly or partly owned subsidiary and may be a partner in any business enterprise which it would have power to conduct by itself.

12. The directors of the Corporation shall be divided into three classes, Class A, Class B and Class C. Each class shall consist of one-third of the number of directors and the members of each such class shall be elected to hold office (except for the initial Class A and Class B directors) until the annual meeting of the stockholders occurring in the third calendar year following the calendar year in which they are elected.

*We further certify that the foregoing restated articles of organization effect no amendments to the articles of organization of the corporation as heretofore amended, except amendments to the following articles Article 3 & Article 6 (Sections 2 to 11)

("If there are no such amendments, state "None".)

Briefly describe amendments in space below:

For amendments adopted pursuant to Chapter 156B, Section 70

For amendments adopted pursuant to Chapter 156B, Section 71

Note: If the space provided under any Amendment or item on this form is insufficient, additions shall be set forth on separate sheets of paper leaving a left hand margin of at least 1 inch for binding. Additions to more than one Amendment may be continued on a single sheet so long as each Amendment requiring each such addition is clearly indicated.

Article 6 is hereby amended to add a new paragraph 13: to provide as follows:

13. No Director shall be personally liable to the Corporation or any stockholder for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except, in addition to any and all other requirements for such liability, (i) for any breach of such director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) to the extent provided under Section Sixty One or Sixty Two of Chapter 156B of the Massachusetts General Laws, or (iv) for any transaction for which such director derived an improper personal benefit. Neither the amendment nor repeal of this paragraph nor the adoption of any provision of these Articles of Organization inconsistent with this paragraph shall reduce or eliminate the effect of this paragraph in respect of any matter occurring, or any cause of action, suit or claim that, but for this paragraph, would accrue or arise, prior to such amendment, repeal or adoption of an inconsistent provision.

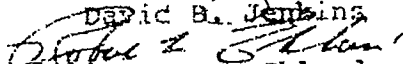

The foregoing amendment will become effective when these articles of amendment are filed in accordance with Chapter 156B, Section 6 of The General Laws unless these articles specify, in accordance with the vote adopting the amendment, a later effective date not more than thirty days after such filing, in which event the amendment will become effective on such later date.
