A Summer-Long Scavenger Hunt!

Beginning Monday, July 8th one of these conservation-related images will be hiding somewhere in the library! The image will change each week and the trick is, you won't know which one you're looking for! Those that find all 7 images will be entered into a raffle to win a grand prize!

Let us know which image you found each week and where you found it (as best you can)! Then turn in this page to the Children's Desk by Saturday, August 24th. Winner(s) of the grand prize will be notified by email Saturday, August 31st.
