

December at the Franklin Historical Museum

Mrs. Claus returns to the Franklin Historical Museum on Sunday, December 1st from 1:30-3:30pm. Join us for some warm cocoa, candy canes and storytelling!

Join us to learn the history of your favorite holiday traditions!

Ken Turino of Historic New England shares the history behind Christmas traditions throughout the ages! Explore where the popularity of Christmas trees, decking halls and sending cards originated! Looking back from 1600 til today!

Sunday, December 8th at 1:00pm

Beautiful Town Common ornaments are on sale at the Franklin Historical Museum gift shop for $16! Makes a great, thoughtful gift! Other Franklin themed ornaments available while supplies last!

Proceeds go to the Friends of the Franklin Historical Museum

Museum hours are Saturday 10am-1pm and Sunday 1pm-4pm