08/04/2016

On August 4, 2016 the Franklin Police Department conducted Alcohol Compliance checks of establishments that serve or sell alcoholic beverages in the town of Franklin. Officer Mucciarone and myself (Sgt Chris Spillane), were working with our under age decoy, identified as Sam Hanson (18 yrs of age 6/21/98). At approximately 6:38 pm, we were conducting a check of Joe's American Bar and Grill located at 466 King St in the town of Franklin. The underage decoy was handed a $20.00 bill and was advised to order a Budweiser Light bottle.

Approximately 5 minutes after entering the establishment, the decoy exited the front door and gave us the signal that he was served. He approached our unmarked police vehicle and handed me the remaining change from the $20.00 bill, which was $14.20. The decoy stated that he was served at the bar, by the young blonde bartender. At this time, myself and officer Mucciarone entered the establishment and proceeded to the bar area. We identified the employee described and approached her. We identified ourselves as police officers and discussed the nature of our visit. The Joe's American Bar and Grill employee was identified as Victoria Beinars (12/18/93), she provided us with a MA license to confirm her identity. We also spoke with the manager, identified as David Petersen (2/22/86).

Petersen was advised of the procedure of our Compliance checks and that his establishment was in violation. Petersen was advised that he would be receiving paper work from the Town Council regarding the violation. All paperwork has been completed and forwarded to Lt. Mark Manocchio for processing.

HEARINGS: Alcoholic Beverages Licensees – Failure to Pass Compliance Check – 7:10PM: Devita's Market – Police Chief Stephen Williams reported that a compliance check was conducted on Friday, July 29. He noted that Franklin is well below the national average in terms of non-compliance cases. Chief Williams stated that at 8:50PM on 7/29/11, an underage male operative paid cash at Devita's Market for a 12-pack of beer and was not asked for identification. This is the second offense by Devita's Market in less than three years. The recommended penalty is a five-day suspension with two days held in abeyance for two years and three days served. It has been confirmed with the attorney for the owner of Devita's Market that these terms are acceptable. The attorney also confirmed that, since the incident, the cashier in question has received TIPP training. Councilor Whalen stated that asking for identification is the most basic compliance measure that can be taken. Chairman Mason noted that it is the owner's wife who failed to ask for identification in this instance and suggested that ownership should increase the sense of responsibility for compliance with the law. Chief Williams said all alcoholic beverage license holders in Town had plenty of notice of the compliance check. Chairman Mason recommended that the penalty be imposed for three days in a row, with one being a Friday. Councilor Pfeffer suggested the penalty should be imposed on three Fridays in a row. Councilor Jones concurred. Councilor McGann said the Council has never imposed three Fridays in a row, adding that it would present a hardship on the business. Chairman Mason agreed. Councilor Pfeffer said she suggested three consecutive Fridays because the owners objected to three days in a row. Councilor Whalen said he is in favor of three consecutive days (including a Friday) or three consecutive Fridays, noting that the previous offense is relevant. Mr. Nutting suggested the penalty be imposed on consecutive days Wednesday, Thursday and Friday; September 21, 22 and 23. MOTION by Chairman Mason to close the hearing SECONDED by Councilor Kelly. VOTE to Approve: Unanimous. MOTION by Councilor Whalen that Devita's Market suspend liquor sales for three consecutive days; Wednesday, September 21, Thursday, September 22 and Friday, September 23; with two days of suspension held in abeyance for two years SECONDED by Councilor Jones. VOTE to Approve: Unanimous.

Joe's American Bar & Grill – Chief Williams reported that an underage operative entered the establishment at 8:24PM on July 29 and requested a beer at the bar. The operative was asked for identification, which was presented and not recognized by the bartender as being invalid for the purchase of alcohol. The Chief noted it is the first offense for this establishment and recommended a three-day suspension of liquor sales with one served and two held in abeyance for one year. The attorney representing the restaurant chain noted that this is the first offense for the entire chain. He said that all staff members are TIPP trained and that the chain employs its own compliance enforcement officer who is a former member of the Alcoholic Beverages Control Commission (ABCC). The attorney said the employee who failed to recognize the invalidity of the identification presented is a model employee who has worked for the company for 13 years. He said the incident is a wake-up call for the entire company. MOTION by Councilor Whalen to close the hearing SECONDED by Councilor Pfeffer. VOTE to Approve: Unanimous. MOTION by Councilor Whalen that Joe's American Bar & Grill suspend alcohol sales on Friday, September 16, 2011, with two days held in abeyance for one year SECONDED by Councilor Powderly. VOTE to Approve: Unanimous.

Tedeschi's Food Shop — Chief Williams reported that an underage operative entered Tedeschi's at 8:32PM and purchased a 12-pack of beer without being asked for identification. The business has no prior incidents of non-compliance. A three-day suspension with one day served and two held in abeyance for one year is recommended. The attorney for Tedeschi's said the owners take the offense seriously and that all employees were TIPP recertified in July. Registers in the stores prompt for identification and video tapes are checked against liquor and tobacco product sales. The attorney said the cashier was simultaneously keeping track of gasoline sales outside. The company has offered resources to help other businesses in Town to remain in compliance. MOTION by Councilor Whalen to close the hearing SECONDED by Councilor Pfeffer. VOTE to Approve: Unanimous. MOTION by Councilor Whalen that Tedeschi's Food Shop suspend liquor sales on Friday, September 16, 2011, with two days held in abeyance for one year SECONDED by Councilor Powderly.
